

Quo Vadis Days 2022

Terms and Conditions of Enrollment

Acceptance and forms required

All of the following are required: 1) Registration and Parental Permission Form, 2) Medical Matters health form, 3) Youth Code of Conduct/Dress Code, and 4) the Terms and Conditions of Enrollment.

A complete registration packet, including the above forms, is due to the Office of Vocations no later than June 29, 2022.

Transportation to and from DeSales University is the responsibility of the participant and his family.

Trip and photo permission

Parents or legal guardians give permission to have children participate in all activities of Quo Vadis Days at DeSales University.

Parents or legal guardians give permission to have photographs/videos and audio recordings of camper used in printed materials, or for other media for promotional purposes for the Office of Vocations.

Personal Property

DeSales University, the Office of Vocations and the Diocese of Allentown are not responsible for lost or stolen property (cameras, iPods, etc.). iPads and laptops are strictly prohibited. If you choose to bring a cell phone, it must be left in the dorm room during the day at your own risk. If the participant is caught using the cell phone during activities, the cell phone will be confiscated.

Cancellation, billing, and refund policies

The registration fee is refundable only if there is a waiting list for the camp. If there is a waiting list and you decide to not participate and ask for a refund, you will be given it, and the first person on the waiting list will be able to come. If there is no waiting list, then the registration fee is non-refundable.

A $35 charge will be made on any returned checks.

There is no allowance or refund for any absences, missed days, late arrival, dismissal, partial weeks, or early withdrawal of participant during the Quo Vadis Days Vocation Event.

Participant Code of Conduct

All participants of Quo Vadis Days 2022 are required to read and sign the rules of conduct. If there are violations of the rules of conduct on behalf of the participant, the Office of Vocations and DeSales University reserves the right to ask the participant to leave, or other lesser forms of disciplinary action. If there is damage to any property that occurs as a result of the participant's actions, the parent or legal guardian will be responsible for reimbursement to the Office of Vocations and/or DeSales University.

As parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s), I (we) remain legally responsible for any personal actions taken by the above named minor ("participant"). In consideration for my (our) child's participation, I (we) and my (our) child, agree and understand that I (we) assume the risks inherent in the activities of Quo Vadis Days camp, and with full knowledge of the risks, I (we), and our heirs, successors and assigns, agree to release and to hold harmless and defend the Diocese of Allentown; Most Reverend Monsignor Alfred A. Schlert, D.D., J.C.L., Bishop of Allentown, Office of Vocations and all of their employees and representatives, including chaperones, volunteers or any other representatives associated with the camp (all of whom are collectively referred to as the Diocese) from claims from or related to my (our) child's participation, or in connection with any illness or injury (including death) or cost of medical treatment in connection therewith, and I (we) agree to compensate the Diocese for reasonable attorney's fees and expenses incurred by the Diocese in any action brought against the Diocese as a result of such injury or damage, unless such claim arises from the negligence of the Diocese.

By signing below, I (we) state that I (we) have read and understand this sheet of terms and conditions of the Quo Vadis Days Vocation Camp, running from July 17 to July 21, 2022.
